If no nomination for a particular office shall have been made prior to the date of such election, or if all candidates previously nominated for a particular office shall have declined or withdrawn, nominations for that office may be made on the date of election. If a Member has been nominated for more than one office, he must declare that he accepts one nomination and withdraw from other nominations before the close of the last regular meeting of the Lodge prior to the regular meeting at which the election is to be held, and if he does not do so, he must accept only the first nomination. Elections to fill vacancies arising in the preceding paragraph shall take place at the next regular meeting after said order. Nominations for office may be made at the meeting when the Exalted Ruler orders the election and again at the meeting when the election is held. ## RULES OF ORDER

1. When the Exalted Ruler takes the chair, the Officers shall take their positions and the members be seated, and at the sound of the gavel there shall be general silence. The Exalted Ruler shall then instruct the Esquire to organize the Lodge. That Officer shall then see that the doors are properly closed and guarded, and the Officers clothed in proper regalia, and report to the Exalted Ruler. The Lodge shall then be opened in due form.

2. The Exalted Ruler shall preserve order and pronounce the decision of the Lodge on all subjects; he shall decide all questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Lodge by any member who may dissent from the same, which appeal must be seconded, when the question shall be: "Shall the decision of the chair stand as the judgment of the Lodge?" on which no Member shall speak more than once without special permission of the Lodge, which must be granted or withheld without debate. The question of an appeal, and all questions which arise while it is pending, shall be taken and announced or decided by the Exalted Ruler.
3. No question shall be stated unless moved and seconded, nor be open for discussion until stated by the Exalted Ruler; and when a question is before the Lodge the only motions in order shall be:
  0. To lay on the table.
  1. The previous question.
  2. To indefinitely postpone.
  3. To postpone to a certain day.
  4. To recommit.
  5. To refer.
  6. To amend.

They shall take precedence in the order here arranged, and the first two shall be decided without debate.

4. On the call of three members for the previous question, the Exalted Ruler shall put the question in this form: "Shall the main question now be put?" If the motion is carried, the vote shall first be put upon all pending amendments, after which upon the main question.
5. No motion shall be made by one Member while another is speaking. And no motion shall be made or seconded without rising and addressing the Exalted Ruler, and he shall not recognize a motion or second made contrary to this rule.
6. If, on taking a vote upon any question (except in balloting for Officers), the members are evenly divided, it then becomes the duty of the Exalted Ruler to give the casting vote; in doing which he may, if he desires, give his reasons.
7. Any Member making a motion shall reduce the same to writing, at the request of the Exalted Ruler or any Member. Resolutions shall be presented in writing, signed by the Member offering the same; and in either case they shall not be before the Lodge until they are read or stated by the Exalted Ruler or the Secretary.
8. When any communication, petition or memorial is presented, a brief statement of its contents shall be made before it is read, and after it has been read a brief notice of its purport shall be entered on the minutes.

9. When the reading of any paper is called for, and an objection is made by any Member, it shall be determined by a vote of the Lodge.
10. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except it be to call him to order, or for the purpose of explanation.
11. If, during a Member's remarks, any other Member should desire to give information pertinent to the subject and short in its nature, or to ask a question of the same character, to be answered by the Member having the floor, he must rise and request, through the Exalted Ruler, the Member having the floor for permission to that effect, and if refused, shall immediately resume his seat, the floor still remaining in possession of the first mentioned Member, but no Member shall keep the floor for more than five minutes if any objection be made.
12. If a Member while speaking, be called to order, he shall at the request of the Exalted Ruler, take his seat until the question of order is determined, when, if permitted, he will again resume.
13. When a Member has occasion to make any verbal communication to the Lodge, motion or otherwise, he shall rise in his place and address himself to the Exalted Ruler by his proper title, who shall thereupon announce the Member to the Lodge as having the floor by calling the name of the same. Until thus recognized by the Exalted Ruler, no Member shall attempt to speak.
14. Members shall confine themselves to the question under debate, and avoid personalities and indecorous and sarcastic language.
15. If two or more Members endeavor to obtain the floor at the same time, the Member first addressing the Exalted Ruler by his proper title, and first heard by him, shall be adjudged the floor; and no Member shall speak more than once on the same subject or question until all who wish to speak shall have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice, without the permission of the Exalted Ruler. Each Member while speaking shall designate the Officer or Member spoken of by his proper title, according to his standing in the Order.
16. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the highest sum or number, and the longest time proposed.
17. Before putting the question, the Exalted Ruler shall ask, "Is the Lodge ready for the question?" When, if no member rises to speak, he shall rise and put the question, and after he has risen for that purpose, no further discussion or motions shall be entertained until the question has been decided. While the Exalted Ruler is addressing the Lodge, or putting the question, silence shall be observed in the Lodge.
18. After any question, except one of indefinite postponement, has been decided, any Member who voted with the majority may, at the same meeting, move for a reconsideration thereof, but no discussion of the main question shall be allowed unless reconsidered. A motion to reconsider a vote to reconsider cannot be entertained. Where a motion to reconsider has been adopted at a meeting following the first vote, and notice to Lodge members on the proposal was originally required, a new notice must then be given in the same manner on the second vote, the same as on the original motion.
19. A motion to rescind can only be carried by a two-thirds vote of all Members present.

20. When a Member has been called to order for manifestation of temper or improper conduct, he shall not be permitted to speak again at that session upon the same subject, unless by permission of the Lodge.
21. In speaking on points of order, the Exalted Ruler shall have the precedence; but he cannot speak on any other subject, unless to state the facts within his own knowledge.
22. No Member shall retire without permission of the Exalted Ruler. During opening and closing of the Lodge, reading of minutes, and initiation, the door shall be closed.
23. Any Member having made a motion may withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before it is debated, but not afterwards without permission of the Lodge.
24. When a majority report is followed by a report from the minority of a committee, the former, after being read, shall lie upon the table until the latter has been presented; after which, on motion, either may be considered.
25. No motion to adjourn can be entertained; but when the regular order of business shall have been completed, the Lodge shall be closed in due form.

The foregoing Order of Business, By-Laws and Rules of Order are hereby approved by the Committee on Judiciary.
